Excel Technology Participated In Po Leung Kuk's
Charity Mooncake Sale 2003 (保良局慈善月餅義賣)

[September 10, 2003 Hong Kong] Excel Technology International (Hong Kong) Limited ("Excel Technology"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Excel Technology International Holdings Limited [stock code: 8048], is pleased to take part in the Po Leung Kuk's Charity Mooncake Sale in support of its "Care for the Elders Fund-raising" Project (保良安老贊助計劃) this year. Po Leung Kuk ("PLK") is one of the well-known charitable organizations that dedicated to provide multi-facet social services to the community in Hong Kong.

As part of Excel's Corporate Volunteering Program initiatives to support social service organizations in promoting community services, Excel and PLK organized a charity mooncake sale, which was held in Excel's The Center office during August 25 - 29, 2003. All the proceeds of this sale activity will go to PLK for the development of its Elderly Service. The Sale was well supported by the management and staff of the company. As a result, Excel and staff together purchased and donated a total of HK$6,580 to PLK.

As a responsible corporate citizen, Excel will continue to support community services and help promote a better and caring society of Hong Kong.
