FIRST QUARTERLY RESULTS FOR THE THREE MONTHS ENDED 31 MARCH 2007

Characteristics of The Growth Enterprise Market (“GEM”) of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Exchange”)

GEM has been established as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a high investment risk may be attached. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. Furthermore, there may be risks arising out of the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM and the business sectors or countries in which the companies operate. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

The principal means of information dissemination on GEM is publication on the internet website operated by the Exchange. Listed companies are not generally required to issue paid announcements in gazetted newspapers. Accordingly, prospective investors should note that they need to have access to the GEM website in order to obtain up-to-date information on GEM-listed issuers.

The Exchange takes no responsibility for the contents of this announcement, makes no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever for any loss however arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this announcement.

This announcement, for which the directors (the “Directors”) of Excel Technology International Holdings Limited (the “Company”) collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“GEM Listing Rules”) for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Company. The Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief:– (1) the information contained in this announcement is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading; (2) there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement in this announcement misleading; and (3) all opinions expressed in this announcement have been arrived at after due and careful consideration and are founded on bases and assumptions that are fair and reasonable.

Revenue on enterprise software products records a stable growth. The drop in the turnover of systems integration business was mainly a timing issue due to minor delays of business contracts.

FUTURE PROSPECTS

First quarter of every calendar year is our traditional slow quarter, particularly in China in which many activities would not start until after Chinese New Year. This year is no exception. Much of efforts spent in this quarter was used to strategizes and to plan for the coming period, as well as to build up the business pipelines with potential customers.

As one of our sales strategies is to leverage our geographic presence, we are working on a number of banks and financial establishments in Southeast Asia. We are expecting to close a few key contracts for our enterprise software in Thailand as well as Malaysia in the next few months.

We are also working with a couple of international banks to bring our wealth management solution – EC-Invest (previously known as UTS) – into China. This will be our latest enterprise software that we sell to banks in China, in addition to the loans management and treasury management software.

The software outsourcing business is standing on solid ground. Besides the various outsourcing projects we have landed in the past year, we are negotiating with a Japanese company to start a multi-year project to implement an enterprise resources management (“ERP”) software for its manufacturing locations in Greater China, including Hong Kong and Taiwan. This project will also include the whole works of hosting and network set up, and the daily operation of the ERP solution using our ASP services. We are expecting to start this project in the second quarter this year.

As indicated in our 2006 annual report, we are starting 2007 with a strong backlog and good future potentials. The management team is working hard to manage this growth and to maximize the return of our past investments.
