NOTICE OF SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special general meeting of Excel Technology International Holdings Limited (the “Company”) will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, 16 December 2004 at 5/F., 663 King’s Road, North Point, Hong Kong for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, passing the following resolution which will be proposed as a special resolution of the Company.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

“THAT the following amendments to the Bye-Laws of the Company be and are hereby approved:

- (1) by adding the following new definition of “associate” immediately after the definition of “Act” in Bye-Law 1:

“associate” the meaning attributed to it in the rules of the Designated Stock Exchange.

- (2) by deleting the words “a recognised clearing house within the meaning of Section 2 of the Securities and Futures (Clearing Houses) Ordinance of Hong Kong or” from the definition of “clearing house” in Bye-Law 1.

* For identification purpose only

- (3) by inserting the following words at the end of Bye-Law 2(e) after the words “in a visible form”:
- “, and including in the form of electronic display, provided that both the mode of service of the relevant document or notice and the Member’s election (where applicable) comply with all applicable Statutes, rules and regulations”.
- (4) by deleting the full-stop at the end of the existing Bye-Law 2(j) and replacing therewith a semicolon and the word “and”, and inserting the following paragraph as new Bye-Law 2(k):
- “references to a document being executed include references to it being executed under hand or under seal or by electronic signature or by any other method and references to a notice or document include a notice or document recorded or stored in any digital, electronic, electrical, magnetic or other retrievable form or medium and information in visible form whether having physical substance or not.”
- (5) by inserting in Bye-Law 44 after the words “advertisement in an appointed newspaper” the words “(as defined in the Act)” and by inserting in the same Bye-Law 44 after the words “any other newspapers in accordance with the requirements of any Designated Stock Exchange” the words “or by any means in such manner as may be accepted by the Designated Stock Exchange”.
- (6) by renumbering Bye-Law 76 as Bye-Law 76(1) and by adding the following as a new Bye-Law 76(2):
- “Where any Member is, under the Rules of the Designated Stock Exchange, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution of the Company or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution of the Company, any votes cast by or on behalf of such Member in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.”
- (7) by deleting the last sentence in Bye-Law 80 and replacing therewith the following sentence:
- “Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a Member from attending and voting in person on any or all resolutions on which he is entitled to vote at the meeting and in such event, any vote cast by his proxy on the same resolution shall be null and void.”
- (8) by deleting the existing Bye-Law 88 in its entirety and substituting therefor the following:
- “No person other than a Director retiring at the meeting shall, unless recommended by the Directors for election, be eligible for election as a Director at any general meeting unless a Notice signed by a Member (other than the person to be proposed) duly qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which such Notice is given of his intention to propose such person for election and also a Notice signed by the person to be proposed of his willingness to be elected of such Notice(s) shall commence on (and include) the day after the despatch of the notice of the general meeting appointed for such election and end on (and exclude) the day that is seven (7) days before the date of such general meeting.”
- (9) by inserting in Bye-Law 96 after the words “The ordinary remuneration of the Directors shall from time to time be determined by the Company in general meeting” the words “(or if the Company shall so resolve, by the Directors)”.

(10) by deleting the existing Bye-Laws 103(1), 103(2) and 103(3) in their entirety and substituting therefor the following:

“103.(1) A Director shall not vote (nor be counted in the quorum) on any resolution of the Board approving any contract or arrangement or any other proposal in which he or any of his associates is materially interested, but this prohibition shall not apply to any of the following matters namely:

- (i) any contract, arrangement or proposal for the giving to such Director or his associate(s) any security or indemnity in respect of money lent by him or any of his associates or obligations incurred or undertaken by him or any of his associates at the request of or for the benefit of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- (ii) any contract, arrangement or proposal for the giving of any security or indemnity to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiaries for which the Director or his associate(s) has himself/themselves assumed responsibility in whole or in part and whether alone or jointly under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (iii) any contract, arrangement or proposal concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the Company or any other company which the Company may promote or be interested in for subscription or purchase where the Director or his associate(s) is/are or is/are to be interested as a participant in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of the offer;
- (iv) any contract, arrangement or proposal in which the Director or his associate(s) is/are interested in the same manner as other holders of shares or debentures or other securities of the Company by virtue only of his/their interest in shares or debentures or other securities of the Company;
- (v) any contract, arrangement or proposal concerning any other company in which the Director or his associate(s) is/are interested only, whether directly or indirectly, as an officer or executive or a shareholder or in which the Director and any of his associates are not in aggregate beneficially interested in five (5) per cent or more of the issued shares or of the voting rights of any class of shares of such company (or of any third company through which his interest or that of any of his associates is derived); or
- (vi) any proposal or arrangement concerning the benefit of: (a) employees of the Company or its subsidiaries including the adoption, modification or operation of any employees' share scheme or any share incentive or share option scheme under which any Director or his associate(s) may benefit; or (b) the adoption, modification or operation of a pension fund or retirement, death or disability benefits scheme or other arrangement which relates both to directors, his associates and employees of the Company or of any of its subsidiaries and does not provide in respect of any Director, or his associate(s), as such any privilege or advantage not accorded generally to the class of persons to which such scheme or fund relates.

- (2) A company shall be deemed to be a company in which a Director and/or his associate(s) owns five (5) per cent. or more if and so long as (but only if and so long as) he and/or his associates, (either directly or indirectly) are the holders of or beneficially interested in five (5) per cent. or more of any class of the equity share capital of such company or of the voting rights available to members of such company (or of any third company through which his interest or that of any of his associates is derived). For the purpose of this paragraph there shall be disregarded any shares held by a Director or his associate(s) as bare or custodian trustee and in which he or any of them has no beneficial interest, any shares comprised in a trust in which the interest of the Director or his associate(s) is/are in reversion or remainder if and so long as some other person is entitled to receive the income thereof, and any shares comprised in an authorised unit trust scheme in which the Director or his associate(s) is/are interested only as a unit holder.
- (3) Where a company in which a Director and/or his associate(s) holds five (5) per cent. or more is materially interested in a transaction, then that Director and/or his associate(s) shall also be deemed materially interested in such transaction.”
- (11) by inserting the words “, and Bye-Law 153A” after the word “Act” at the beginning of Bye-Law 153 and by inserting the words “at the same time as the notice of annual general meeting” after the words “twenty-one (21) days before the date of the general meeting and” in Bye-Law 153.
- (12) by inserting the following paragraphs as new Bye-Laws 153A and 153B:
- “153A. To the extent the Board shall so resolve and as permitted by and subject to due compliance with all applicable Statutes, rules and regulations, including, without limitation, the rules of the Designated Stock Exchange, and to obtaining all necessary consents, if any, required thereunder, the requirements of Bye-Law 153 shall be deemed satisfied in relation to any person by sending to the person in any manner not prohibited by the Statutes, a summary financial statement derived from the Company’s annual accounts and the directors’ report which shall be in the form and containing the information required by applicable laws and regulations, provided that any person who is otherwise entitled to the annual financial statements of the Company and the directors’ report thereon may, if he so requires by notice in writing served on the Company, demand that the Company sends to him, in addition to a summary financial statement, a complete printed copy of the Company’s annual financial statement and the directors’ report thereon.
- 153B. The requirement to send to a person referred to in Bye-Law 153 the documents referred to in that provision or, where the Board shall so resolve, a summary financial report in accordance with Bye-Law 153A shall be deemed satisfied where, in accordance with all applicable Statutes, rules and regulations, including, without limitation, the rules of the Designated Stock Exchange, the Company publishes copies of the documents referred to in Bye-Law 153 and, if applicable, a summary financial report complying with Bye-Law 153A, on the Company’s website or in any other permitted manner (including by sending any form of electronic communication), and that person has agreed or is deemed to have agreed to treat the publication or receipt of such documents in such manner as discharging the Company’s obligation to send to him a copy of such documents.”

- (13) by deleting the existing Bye-Law 157 in its entirety and substituting therefor the following new Bye-Law 157:

“If the office of auditor becomes vacant by the resignation or death of the Auditor, or by his becoming incapable of acting by reason of illness or other disability at a time when his services are required, the Directors or the Company in a general meeting shall fill his vacancy and fix the remuneration of the Auditor so appointed.”

- (14) by deleting the existing Bye-Law 160 in its entirety and replacing therewith the following new Bye-Law 160:

“Any Notice or document (including any “corporate communication” within the meaning ascribed thereto under the rules of the Designated Stock Exchange), whether or not, to be given or issued under these Bye-Laws from the Company to a Member shall be in writing or by cable, telex or facsimile transmission message or other form of electronic transmission or communication and any such Notice and document may be served or delivered by the Company on or to any Member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid envelope addressed to such Member at his registered address as appearing in the Register or at any other address supplied by him to the Company for the purpose or, as the case may be, by transmitting it to any such address or transmitting it to any telex or facsimile transmission number or electronic number or address or website supplied by him to the Company for the giving of Notice to him or which the person transmitting the notice reasonably and bona fide believes at the relevant time will result in the Notice being duly received by the Member or may also be served by advertisement in appointed newspapers (as defined in the Act) or in newspapers published daily and circulating generally in the territory of and in accordance with the requirements of the Designated Stock Exchange or, to the extent permitted by the applicable laws, rules and regulations, including, without limitation, the rules of the Designated Stock Exchange, by placing it on the Company’s website or the website of the Designated Stock Exchange, and giving to the member a notice stating that the notice or other document is available there (a “notice of availability”). The notice of availability may be given to the Member by any of the means set out above. In the case of joint holders of a share, all notices shall be given to that one of the joint holders whose name stands first in the Register and notice so given shall be deemed sufficient service on or delivery to all the joint holders.”

- (15) by deleting the existing Bye-Law 161 in its entirety and replacing therewith the following new Bye-Law 161:

“Any Notice or other document:

- (a) if served or delivered by post, shall where appropriate be sent by airmail and shall be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day following that on which the envelope containing the same, properly prepaid and addressed, is put into the post; in proving such service or delivery it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice or document was properly addressed and put into the post and a certificate in writing signed by the Secretary or other officer of the Company or other person appointed by the Board that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice or other document was so addressed and put into the post shall be conclusive evidence thereof;
- (b) if sent by electronic communication, shall be deemed to be given on the day on which it is transmitted from the server of the Company or its agent. A notice placed on the Company’s website or the website of the Designated Stock Exchange, is deemed given by the Company to a Member on the day following that on which a notice of availability is deemed served on the Member;

- (c) if served or delivered in any other manner contemplated by these Bye-Laws, shall be deemed to have been served or delivered at the time of personal service or delivery or, as the case may be, at the time of the relevant despatch, transmission or publication; and in proving such service or delivery a certificate in writing signed by the Secretary or other officer of the Company or other person appointed by the Board as to the fact and time of such service, delivery, despatch, transmission or publication shall be conclusive evidence thereof; and
 - (d) may be given to a Member either in the English language or the Chinese language, subject to due compliance with all applicable Statutes, rules and regulations.”
- (16) by inserting the words “or electronic” after the words “a cable or telex or facsimile” in the existing Bye-Law 163.

Notes:

1. Any member of the Company entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him. A member who is the holder of two or more shares may appoint more than one proxy to represent and vote on his behalf at a general meeting of the Company or at a class meeting. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. On a poll, votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
2. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under its seal or under the hand of an officer, attorney or other person authorized to sign the same.

3. The instrument appointing a proxy and (if required by the Board) the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a certified copy of such power or authority shall be delivered to the principal place of business of the Company at 5/F, 663 King's Road, North Point, Hong Kong not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or, in the case of a poll taken subsequently to the date of a meeting or adjourned meeting, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
4. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after expiration of twelve months from the date named in it as the date of its execution, except at an adjourned meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or an adjourned meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within twelve months from such date.
5. Where there are joint holders of any shares, any one of such joint holder may vote at the Meeting, either in person or by proxy, in respect of such share as if he/she were solely entitled thereto; but if more than one of such joint holders be present at any Meeting, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register in respect of the joint holding.
6. Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting convened.
